SENATE BILL

No. 756

Introduced by Senator Ridley-Thomas
(Coauthor: Senator Alquist)

February 23, 2007

An act to add Sections 686.3 and 686.31 to the Penal Code, relating to criminal investigations.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 756, as amended, Ridley-Thomas. Criminal investigations: eyewitness identifications.

Existing case law regulates suspect identification procedures to ensure that they are not unduly suggestive.

This bill would provide that it is the intent of the Legislature that law enforcement officials study and consider the adoption of new policies and procedures, as specified, to ensure that eyewitness identification procedures in California minimize the chance of misidentification of a suspect.

This bill would require that on or before December 31, 2008, the Department of Justice, in consultation with specified law enforcement-related entities, develop guidelines for policies and procedures with respect to collection and handling of eyewitness evidence in criminal investigations by all law enforcement agencies operating in California, as specified. The guidelines would be transmitted to the Legislature with recommendations for any legislation needed to ~~enforce~~ implement the guidelines.

The bill would require that on or before December 31, 2009, the Attorney General report to the Legislature, describing the voluntary implementation of the guidelines and the training implemented by California law enforcement agencies.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 686.3 is added to the Penal Code, to read:
2 686.3. (a) The goal of a law enforcement criminal investigation
3 is to find and apprehend the person or persons responsible for 4 committing a crime.
5 (b) A comprehensive body of peer-reviewed studies of 6 eyewitness identification procedures indicates that the criminal
7 justice system can improve the accuracy of eyewitness
8 identifications by implementing changes to identification
9 procedures.
10 (c) Improving the accuracy of eyewitness identifications will
11 increase public trust in the criminal justice system.
12 (d) Policies and procedures such as those recommended by the 13 National Institute of Justice and the California Commission on the 14 Fair Administration of Justice are readily available and have proven
15 effective in other jurisdictions.
16 (e) It is the intent of the Legislature that law enforcement
17 officials study and consider adoption of new policies and
18 procedures similar to those recommended by the National Institute
19 of Justice and the California Commission on the Fair
20 Administration of Justice in order to ensure that eyewitness
21 identification procedures in California minimize the chance of 22 misidentification of a suspect.
23 (f) On or before December 31, 2008, the Department of Justice,
24 in consultation with the Commission on Peace Officers Standards
25 and Training, local law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, defense
26 attorneys, and other legal experts, including representatives of the 27 California District Attorney's Association, the Los Angeles District
28 Attorney, the California Public Defenders Association, and the 29 California Attorneys for Criminal Justice, shall develop guidelines
30 for policies and procedures with respect to collection and handling
31 of eyewitness evidence in criminal investigations by all law

1 enforcement agencies operating in California. These guidelines
2 shall be developed to ensure reliable and accurate suspect
3 identifications and shall be consistent with the reliable evidence
4 supporting best practices, including consideration of the
5 recommendations of the California Commission on the Fair
6 Administration of Justice. The guidelines shall be transmitted to 7 the Legislature with recommendations of any legislation needed
8 to ~~enforce~~ implement the guidelines.

9 SEC. 2. Section 686.31 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

10 686.31. On or before December 31, 2009, the Attorney General
11 shall report to the Legislature, describing the voluntary
12 implementation of the guidelines and the training implemented by 13 California law enforcement agencies.
